INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform, rather it reveals. So, it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. This article is an outcome of thinking about creative writing meant for a general readership. As such, I have adopted a free style methodology so that everyone can enjoy the pleasure of reading. As you might know, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays namely 'Of Love', 'Of Friendship', 'Of Ambition', 'Of Studies', and so on. The multiple-minded genius correctly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be used as themes for essays. But little has been done since his death to continue or finish his monumental task. Bacon's unique individual style of presentation ignited my imagination and encouraged me to write creative essays as a method of relieving a wide range of emotions through catharsis.

Misuse is to use something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose. For example: He was found guilty of misusing public funds.

It is the wrong or improper use of something. For example: Drugs of such potency that their misuse can have dire consequences.

It is to use something in an unsuitable way or in a way that was not intended: For example: She was accused of misusing company funds.

It is to use incorrectly. It implies misapplication e.g. misused his talents; a word that is frequently misused.

It is to abuse. It is to mistreat.

'Time and tide wait for none', is a wise saying. Both are fast with steadiness. Man cannot cope up with these two untiring things. So, man becomes the victim of misuse by default as is usually happens in case of computer.

Misuse is omnipresent with its violent existence. Man, misuses someone. Also, man is misused by someone. Thus, man is liable for both misuse and being misused. It is like pay back by his own coin. It happens either consciously or unconsciously. He realizes it instant or later on.

If someone misuses something for valid reason or for public interest there lies no problem. It is very rare. But if misuse is done repeatedly to show power or for personal gain then it is objectionable offence. And the concerned person is singularly liable for the offence done.

Poverty is misused. Poor person is engaged for illegal works in exchange of money.

Relation is misused. Someone has good relation with someone. Both believe each other. Now a third party misuses the belief of anyone or both. It is a common practice. Both the persons cannot understand the foul play instant. Later on, the fact comes out. Then the relation may be closed or may be more alert. From then they verify the veracity of anything prior to take action thus to avoid future complicity.

Emotion is misused. Innocent children are engaged by boss for begging. Man gives alms out of emotion. The street children appear as his issues. Boss simply collects it. Boss earns through emotional blackmailing. It is a means for full profit without any capital investment. Boss remains unseen thereby untouched. Further boss is so kind that he accepts only cash. The beggars are chained so uniquely that they cannot escape.

Similarly, children or innocent lay persons are misused as drug carrier.

Much money and energy are misused in the name of rituals to satisfy God. Rituals are observed simply exploiting emotions.

Someone is misused. Money is misused. Time is misused. Among these three first two can be returned back but never time. As such misuse of time is the worst type of misuse. It can never or anyhow be compensated. Man, laments whole life for this callous activity.

Use and throw is a common example of misuse. It is a policy. It is a tool of the shrewd to gain instant. Everybody uses this strategy infinite times from cradle to coffin. Also, man discovers of his misuse by third party. Sometimes he protests. Sometimes he protests not. Sometimes he cannot protest at all. It is hard reality. It is the lesson of life. Use of this tool discloses the true identity of the concerned person.

Misuse of relation is another type of misuse man practices. Someone has higher catch. Citing this example, he black mails someone weaker in nature. He may squeeze money or any favor or sexually abuse or exploit her.

Torture in the name of boss is sadistic pleasure. And income in the name of tyrant is common practice of underground world which is dark continent. Here the grammar is quite different than the so-called civic society. Here the essence of administration is highest discipline. Here betray implies bullet.

Kidnapping is emotional black mail. Lover becomes intimate. They black mail with the picture or video photography of intimate moments of sexual enjoyment. Here relation is misused.

A lazy person does not use his talent. An energetic person may misuse his talent. Between the two the energetic person is better. If the energetic person is convinced about his wrong deeds, then he may rectify himself. Then he will proceed correctly. But the lazy person will do nothing. It is difficult to make unwilling horse drink water. It is equally true in case of lazy person.

Misbehavior defames a person. It closes the door of communication. The person misuses his self-image. Man is alias and akin to money. In distress man helps with helping hand or money.

Money is an inanimate object. As such it cannot serve all purpose. Money cannot reach everywhere but man can reach. If money is lost it can be earned. But man cannot be earned easily since man is guided by both motion and emotion as well.

Misbehavior hurts much. It has a long-lasting impact. It cannot be erased from mind's easel easily. It compels to leave someone. In case of leaving two incidences may happen. If the two persons move simultaneously then the distance, between them, of both physical and psychological are twice than if someone remains stationary. The cool-tempered soul waits lifelong. The hot-tempered partner rushes and goes far untiringly. The goer seldom becomes returner.

Misuse is a dirty game. The person is basically weak in morality. He may be physically strong but morally weak. A person having strong personality can resist such a wicked brain.

A novice misuses time for lacking in intellect. A wise misuses time by mistake. A sly person misuses time for illegal gain. Thus, misuse of anything may be either intentional or unintentional. In case of intentional it should be objected as is usually seen in case of rivals. In case of unintentional the person should be guided as is done by the parents towards their issues. Also, teacher guides the students for right direction.

Misuse of time and talent are very dangerous. Both these two practices destruct the career of any student. The student becomes diverted from the right track. The tender soul does not or cannot realize the severity of misuse of these two costliest ingredients of human life. He realizes when he fails in the examination and his class mates join higher studies. He cannot cope up with his new class mates for lacking in knowledge. He becomes dropout. This is the outcome of misuse of time and gossiping with inattentive students.

Fortunate soul uses. He is a blessed soul. He is not diverted from the focus. He becomes successful. Unfortunate soul misuses. He gets diverted. He becomes the victim of perversion. He becomes unsuccessful. He is a cursed victim. He suffers from inferiority complex. He is not considered as a member of the main stream. Nobody laughs for him. Rather everybody laughs at him. He is hated by all. As time passes the gap between them becomes high to higher.

Courtesy costs nothing. Very few persons use courtesy as an avenue to be intimate. It is an orientation. Good culture helps to be courteous. Proper environment paves to flourish it properly. It is both easiest and cheapest avenue to be popular.

CONCLUSION

Most of the persons are busy with money making or to fulfill different kind of interests by any means. Use may not pay. Misuse may pay instant. It needs talent to use. Misuse does not need so much talent or it needs little talent. As such common people are interested to misuse rather than use. This answers why the world is infested with so many misused activities.
